

Kathy K Parr Memorial Scholarship Procedures

1. $2,500 scholarship awarded to up to two recipients in any year for coursework, continuing education, certification, professional licensing or training work in a manufacturing related field of study. Courses that may be unrelated to an employee's position but are needed to complete a required course of study that would be job related are acceptable. In addition, non-credit courses may be suitable if they are aimed at improving specific skills which will benefit the applicant and the employer and improve the applicant's potential for advancement.
2. The criteria for awarding a scholarship will be scored as follows:

Short Essay (30 pts)	Economic Need (20 pts)
Academics (10 pts)	Extracurricular Activities (10 pts)
Recommendations (10 pts)	Volunteerism (10 pts)
Work Experience (10 pts)
3. Eligibility: ABMA member organizations' employees and their family members
4. Each student will write a personal statement (essay - maximum 500 words) on the topic
5. Process: Each ABMA member organization will promote the scholarship and circulate application forms and other information. Deadline for submission of applications will be March 1 of any calendar year. The ABMA Foundation board of directors will screen all applications and select the successful applicant(s). Winners will be notified and names announced by May 1 of the same calendar year and have until November 1 to pick up their award or otherwise forfeit.
6. Completed application packet must be received by 4:00PM on March 1
7. Please submit all applications to: info@abma.org or
